A to the graph of the state of

JUDGE JEROME MAKING A WHIRLWIND CANVASS.

"Go Home," He Tells the Woman's Municipal League at Noon Meeting-"By Coming Down Here in Carriages and Fall Bonnets You Are Losing Votes, More Votes in a Day than We Can Gain in Two Weeks."

candidate for District-Attorney, is the most picturesque figure in the campaign. He is making a canvass which has likened to a whirlwind, and few men have ever made such an aggres-

Justice Jerome, forceful, tireless, fearless, makes friends and votes wherever goes. His speeches-and he makes five or six each night-are adapted to the audience that faces him. He stud-ies the characteristics of his hearers and guages his remarks to impress them.

He does not make the same speech wice, and the arguments that he uses words he uses on the lower east side League meeting, Colvary Church, west end. in the Bronx are different from the Baxter and Canal streets. There he does sees callers, answers letters, makes and receives suggestions and pre-

From 10 o'clock until 4 or 5 he is at his desk, unless he has a midday speech dreamed of before. to make, and in that event he loses no time, but hurries to the hall, says what headquarters.

day at No. 91 Delancey street. Here much campaign literature will be prepared and distributed. The fact of opening an establishment at that adcan be secured anywhere if the issues are presented to the voters in the right

The headquarters at Canal and Baxter streets will be open day and night His Noonday Speech.

Municipal League sit up and take notice at a noon meeting held to-day in the Assembly room of the United Charities Building. He told them in effect that they were of no use in this campaign, but that they might be a power for good after the election.

They did not know how to take his Tion. The Democratic candidate, he said, had been on every side of every said, had been on every side of every in the following of civic duty."

R. Fulton Cutting, who preceded Justice Jerome, spoke along the same lines. "Our rush for money and social position has killed civic interest," he said, who cream a man has been unless he intends to remain clean.

"A friend of mine came to me the other day," continued Justice Jerome, ment; what we need is an ideal government. The influence of the women of the city, if rightly directed, can aid us of civic duty."

R. Fulton Cutting, who preceded Justice Jerome, where the policy is intended in the same lines. "Our rush for money and social position has killed civic interest," he said. "We have created a commercial government; what we need is an ideal government. The influence of the women of the city, if rightly directed, can aid us of civic duty."

R. Fulton Cutting, who preceded Justice Jerome, spoke along the same lines. "Our rush for money and social power than the said about how crean a man has been unless he intended to the city in the said. "We have created a commercial government; what we need is an ideal government; where the commercial said is the commercial said. The political question for the past ten years.

"We have created a commercial government; what we need is an ideal government; what we need is an ideal government. The influence of the city, if rightly directed, can all use the political question for the past ten years. Municipal League sit up and take notice said, had been on every side of every at a noon meeting held to-day in the political question for the past ten years.

Assembly room of the United Charities and that it was no use in talking about they were of no use in this campaign.

WOULD KILL

Youth Locked Up in Mount Vernon Says That Is His Mission.

Locked up in the Mount Vernon poli station is a youth who says that he was sent from heaven to kill President Roosevelt. It took four able-bodied men to place him in a padded cell.

The prisoner claims that he has al-ready been in Heaven and that the President of the United States is doomed years old, is clad in a suit of wixed goods, flannel shirt and cap. He does not remember his name, but says that he recently worked for a farmer by the name of Rowe, in Great Barringtor

Since his confinement in a cell the roung prisoner has spoken but little Young prisoner has spoken but He also refuses to cat anything.

ROOSEVELT TO BE GUARDED AT YALE.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.-President Roosevelt, accompanied by Secretary Cortelyou, Assistant Secretary Barnes Cortelyou, Assistant Secretary Barnes and one or two members of the White House staff, leaves this afternoon for Farmington, Conn. The President will spend a brief time in Farmington with his sister, Mrs. Cowies, before going to New Haven, where he is to receive the degree of Li.D. from Yale.

President Roosevelt is due at the university Wednesday, and owing to information sent from that point special guards will attend him on his journey. There will be a detail of detectives for the President in Farmington and New Haven also.

WAS PAINTER EGBERT'S DOUBLE

CODY SAYS HE WAS WORKING AT CAPT. MOYNIHAN'S.

Reporter, However, Identifies Po Heeman as the Man He Saw at the House.

The trial of Police Capt, Moynihan, of the West Twentieth street station, accused of having his men do private work

TWO PARTY LEADERS. for him, was continued to-day by In Spector Hawley.

The reporter who wrote the story identified Policeman Thomas Egbert as the man whom he had met at Capt. Moynihan's houses in East One Hundred and Twenty-third street. The reporter declared he had interviewed him here. Egbert insisted it was a case of histaken identity. The policeman said noon arrested Dr. Bernard Lazarus, are was watching a policy shop in West Twenty-seventh street on the date in party, and Daniel H. McKettrick, both

WHERE JEROME SPEAKS FIVE TIMES TO-DAY.

11 A. M.-Before Women's Municipal League, United Charities

8 P. M.—German-American Re-form Union meeting, No. 106 For-8.30 P. M.-Citizens' Union meeting, No. 25 Avenue A. 9 P. M.-Greater New York Democracy meeting, Cooper Union, street and Seventh avenue.

remarks at first, but he was so earnes with them that they applauded him en thusiastically when he had concluded and assured him that they knew more of the situation than they had ever difference whether Low or Shepard was imperative that Justice Jerome should be District-Attorney.

"Madam," said Justice Jerome, am glad of an opportunity to take issue is and exemplifies his ideas that votes the world whether Low or Shepard is elected. It is necessary that Shepard should be defeated."

Tells Women to Stay Home.

Mr. Shepard, he assured his audience would not dare take the Tamman iomination and then knife the organiza campaign. I told him if he meant to home. The wealthy people living above makes a political speech in Carnegiwith a diagram. He needs no diagram more intelligent even though they be salve to conscience, but when it comes won't contribute a cent.

Mayor-both being good men, but it was for this condition. You are mighty late fathers and sons to send us money to "After the election you can begin own homes clean, but do you help to

DATES ON SCHLEY PAPERS CHANGED.

Lieut. Wells, Who Was the Admiral's Secretary, Gives His Views to the Court.

ington, May 7, to the cable office at Mole St. Nicholas, Hayti, directing that be delivered to the next American war vessel to arrive, and informing Commodore Schley "that the most abso-utely urgent thing now is to know sitively whether the Spanish division in Santlago," &c., was shown the

He stated that it had been received by Commodore Schley on May 30. The Colon had been discovered in the harbor of Santiago by Commodore Schley or the morning of May 29.

Mr. Rayner—Am I right in saying that you perhaps saw more or as much as Commodore Schley during the whole of this Spanish war as any one else, and ame in contact with him as much as inybody?

luct and manner on any day in which here was a battle, or any other time?"
"So far as my observation went he was horoughly fearless."

Letter Up Again.

THEY USED THE

Held for Filling Alleged Fraudulent

Election Petition List in

"De Ate."

witness stated that never to his

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—After two days' rest the Schley Court of Inquiry resumed its sessions to-day, and after several witnesses had been recalled for the purpose of correcting their testimony, Lieut, B. W. Weils, jr., secretary of Commodore Schley during the Cuban campaign, resumed the testimony which he had begun on Friday.

After a few preliminaries, he began his marration of the battle of July 3, and was then questioned at some length by Mr. Hayner before he was turned over to Capt. Lemly and Mr. Hanna, for cross-examination.

Long's Desputch Shown.

When Lieut, Wells had finished his description of the battle, the question of despatches was taken up. The cable-gram from Secretary Long dated Washington, May 27, to the cable office at Mole St. Nicholas, Hayti, directing that first been an indorsement showing receipt on May 24 and subsequently its receipt on the 23d of that month

May Have Been Held.

"Your pencil marks then cannot be taken as a very clear indication as to when these papers were received?" questioned Mr. Hanna, but the witnes replied that they could be, saying: "Generally, I should say yes. I do not in tend to be infallible on that subject." "But the 'Dear Schley letter' you say would seem to have been received of the 22d of May?" 'Yes."

"Yes."
"So that although actually received on the 22d, it bore the indersement of 23 and 24."
"One bore a date 23, and another bore a date 24, as I recollect."
"How do you account specifically for the absence of the receiving stamp imprint on the duplicate 'Dear Schley' despatches." he asked.
"It is possible that I jotted down that note on them when they were handed to me. Of course, it was the custom to put the receiving stamp on letters generally."

erally."

"Can it be possible that the Commodore retained them for some time?"

"It is possible, but not probable. He sometimes held despatches in the cabin for a time, but he generally sent them down as soon as received."

Mr. Hanna then put in as testimony despatches by the Dupent, and eneral account of the operation of the o

Horwitz for Assembly and Max Porger for Alderman It is claimed that when the petition being sought the emblem with a lion, and that the signatures were not When the Greater New York Democracy people in the Eighth went to file their certificates Oct. 17 they found the Home Rule party ahead of them with

Dr. Lazarus and McKettrick were arraigned in the Essex Market Court this afternoon and held in $1,500 ball for ex- BISHOP WILL CONFIRM 200.

COLER ON TAX-EATERS.

Will Talk To-Night on Tamman Office-Holders.

Comptroller Coler said to-day that he would reply, in the Clermont Avenue twistion.

The reporter's wife, who had called at the bouse in One Hundred and Twenty-interest with him, was not allowed to saist in the identification as she had said the found in the irial room.

Alderman of the Eighu, on charges of submitting a fraudulent petition illst and using the emblem of another party.

The Cody, of No. 210 East One will be emblem of another party.

Dr. Lazarus got up a petition for an independent nomination papers for Assembly District, naming Abraham

Assembly District, naming Abraham

Assembly District, naming Abraham

The treporter's wife, who had called at of No. 162 Forsyth street, the house occupied by Max Porges, the Democratic the salary increases under the present city administration and the allegations that millions were paid for salaries from bond issues.

The Comptroller said that the figures as published were correct, but that the deductions drawn by the Republicans.

The Comptroller said that the figures as published were correct, but that the deductions drawn by the Republicans.

The two numered children, the boys deductions drawn by the Republicans were all wrong.

WAIT TILL AFTER ELECTION of the Merchants' Association would appear from the fact that when the sider Van Wyck's dismissal of their Murphy they decided to drep the case lown their charges without even

D. Le Roy Dresser announced that as the city was on the eve of a municipal

The Right Rev. Bishop J. J. O'Conno

MERCHANTS' ASSOCIATION TO parts of the building had not the through the brick foundation wall,

At Meeting To-Day It Landinously Decided to Postnone

strong action would be taken at the meeting to-day

Instead, the directors held a remark-election it had been decided to defer further action until after Nov. 5. When the election is over, he said, the case would be taken up and pushed vigorous y to the bitter end. Every one present when this announcement was made was surprised. No one could see why the case should be dropped because of the campaign On the contrary, hearly every one thought it was the very time to push it. President Dresser, however, said that the reason given was the only cause for delaying action, and that the directors the rooster emblem. They charged

ing by Right Rev. O'Counor.

confirmation to a class of 200 candidate at St. Joseph's Church in Hoboken evening. This will be the first visit o Rink. Brooklyn. to-night, to the state-ment given out on Saturday by the Re-

DARING BURGLARS SECURED $74,610.

(Continued from First Page.)

slightest inkling of the daring rob- and a hundred feet or so further on bery being worked almost under their

The robbers drove up to the south east corner of the Post-Office building in a wagon, the tracks of which could be seen plainly to-day. The the men had only to open a little is plainly marked in this way. door to admit themselves under the

Put Plander in Wagon.

To reach the vault it was necesedds and ends of boards which litared the way. The route evidently and been carefully studied, for a deective who went under to-day withat knowledge of locations lost his the only clues we have at present. way and was nearly overcome by the foul odors before assistance eached him.

Having secured their plunder, the obbers loaded it into a wagon, drove across a vacant lot and turned into Wabash avenue in front of the Art Henviest Robbery.

Post-Office Inspect " Stuart, who immediately began an investigation, issisted by his deputies and a squad of detectives, said: "It was the largest stamp robbery ever committed in the history et the postal service in this country. Te get to the vault the men dug from it.

they encountered another wall, and this also they dug through.

On the way they met with a number of pipes, and as the floor is but two feet, and in some places three feet above the ground, they tunnelled building is a temporary affair, and under the pipes. Their whole course The wholesale stamp vault, like the cashier's vault, and the money order vault, is supported by a brick wall. It forms a square, and before the sary to crawl about 300 feet over robbery was air-tight. In this the robbers broke two holes, possibly to secure more air.

"For light the robbers used dry bateries, one of which they left behind. This battery and the wagon tracks are Worked for Hours.

Worked for Hours.

"The space under the vault is sufficiently large for a man to stand upright and their work must have been comparatively easy with the drills and tools they used. The stamps were arranged in twenty pound bundles, and the weight of the load they carried off must have been five hundred pounds.

"Evidently one man handed the packages down to others waiting below. As their progress must have been slow carrying even one bundle through all those they worked for hours getting their booty to the wagon.

"Apparently they felt perfectly secure, though somewhat disappointed at missing the cashier's vault where there was 135,000 in cash and a great quantity of stamps. I cannot tell now how many worked at the job. Every effort will, of course, be made to recover the property and capture the men who took it."

Postmaster Frederick E. Coyne is in Washington. He is responsible for the loss till an act of Congress frees him from it.

bly District. Lewis A. Lehmaier, repre senting the Citizens' Union, looked out for the interests of the students. At-torney Russell, of Tammany Hall and James Hasbrouck, representing the At-torney-General's office, conducted the WHO MAY VOTE

It was shown by six of the students that they had voted in this city last year, and they were allowed to go, Thomas M. Whiteman, of No. 367 Manhattan avenue, made atrenuous efforts to have his registration stand, It was proved, however, that he had voted in Paralysis.

Beven students of Columbia Coliege were arraigned in Harlem Police Court to-day on summonses charging them with illegal registration. The complaint with illegal registration, The complaint was made by Matthew Bonahus. Tammany leader of the Twenty-first Assemmany leader of the Students of the Forceful, Fearless, Enthusiastic Fusionist Is Speaking Five Times a Day and Is Keeping His Headquarters Open Until Midnight.

"STOP THE BLACKMAIL," JEROME'S BATTLE CRY.

I say Mr. Croker is over the whole thing, but I name those five men together-Carroll, Sexton, Devery, Frank Farrell, the head of the gambling syndicate, and Van Wyck. I name those five men together advisedly.

hide from the plain people the real issue of the campaign-decency against indecency; honesty against grafters; law against

You cannot take lasue with me nor I with you on the com-

I don't think it is personal liberty when the organization which rules this city is dominated by blackmail and rottenness When we see the police growing rich by wringing from women the wages of their shame, and when we are told by Col. Murphy that the man who raises his voice against this condition mny feel that the daughter whom they leave behind them when blackmail on the east, west, north and south sides of New York, Just think of a condition of affairs that permits Robert A.

If it be persecution of fallen women to ask them to move out of the tenements and to be resolved to keep those places clean, then I am a persecutor. I don't propose to be Chief of Police and District-Attorney at the same time, but I do propose, if elected, to put a stop to the system of blackmail all over town.

Our Grand Jury system is debauched and rotten and Grand Juries are a mockery of justice.

There is a question of public decency: of citizens doing business and living in peace without putting their hands in their pockets every step they take. You cannot steal and fight at the same time.

Van Wyck to be nominated for the Supreme beach,

COURT UPHOLDS |LOW OBJECTS TO BEHRMAN'S CASE A JOINT DEBATE.

APPELLATE DIVISION OVER- HE AND SHEPARD DO NOT RULES BOARD OF ELECTIONS.

rders that His Petition for Al- There is No Logical Basis, He Property Filed.

he decision of Justice Lawrence in the quarters on East Twenty-third street. ase of John H. Behrman, candidate One of the first questions put to him or Alderman in the Forty-fourth Alder- was as to the registration. He said that nanic District in Manhattan and the latch and Ingraham, with a dissenting pinion by Justice Van Brunt. The ourt ordered that a mandamus be is-

30 AFFIDAVITS THAT PETI-

TIONS WERE ILLEGAL.

Iwo Men Produced by Cits Tell of Intimidation by Tammany

Inspectors.

Martin Engel's protest against the filing of the names of Anthony Smith for Assemblyman and Benjamin Solomon

s Alderman in the Eighth District on the Citizens' Union ticket was heard by the Board of Elections at Police Headeral hours to produce evidence in re-buttal, but President Voorhis, who had given Engel over twenty-four hours to VANDERIN SHOT HIMSELF.

prepare his case, would allow only two of Shepard to debate the campaign is-sues with the Fusion candidate, Mr. sued against the Board of Elections ompeiling them to file the petition of onn H. Behrman was candidate on the feasible.

Section ticket, but the Board of Electric the first place," he Fusion ticket, but the Board of Elec-tions held that the petition filed did not contain the necessary number of sig-natures. Justice Lawrence upheld the Board, deciding that no provision had such a meeting could not be consumeen made for filing petitions of Inde Mr. Low would not say anything about the letter of Bourke Cockran.

AGREE ON CAMPAIGN ISSUES.

Says, for a Joint -

Discussion.

Seth Low began receiving visitors early

He was asked if he thought this indieated his election. Mr. Low replied that

With regard to the alleged challenge he certainly thought he would be elected.

"I shall be satisfied with a comfortable

t was "very satisfactory."

majority," he said,

CURES CONSUMPTION, CATARRH

AND ASTHMA THIS IS THE ORIGINAL KOCH TREAT MENT, and the only one authorized to use the

All other doctors claiming to use this treatment originally worked for the Koch Lung Cure at 48 W. 22d st., and do not have the formulas. They are being prosecuted for using our patents and trade marks. Send for testimonials of cured natients in this city.

The German-American Company has offices at 48 W. 22d st. New York. They also have offices in Fhiladelphia, Washington, Baltimore, Buffalo, Boston, Rochester, Asheville and other American sitias.

trict, by non-voters, by voters who had trict, by non-voters, by warv not Chocolate Covered Apricot Jelly ....... 15e SPECIALS FOR TUESDAY.

Chocolate Lemon Sherbet..lb. 15c

54 BARCLAYST CON WEST BWAY.
29 CORTLANDT ST.

Political

TO-NIGHT. ANTI-TAMMANY FUSION MASS-MEETING.

CITIZEN UNION.

CITIZENS' UNION.

PROGRESS ASSEMBLY ROOMS.

AVENUE A. NEAR 2D ST.

HOR. WM. TRAVERS JEROME,

EVERIETT P. WIEELER,

HOR. EDW. M. GROUT,

SPEAKERS, HOR. JACOB A. CANTUM:

WM. J. O'BRIEN.

JACOB A. RIIS.

Prof. GOTTHE